Amazing Belarus. A kaleidoscope of questions. General information

Belarus General 1

Belarus borders five countries: Russia to the east, Lithuania and Latvia to the north, Poland to the west, and Ukraine to the south. It is the second largest country in Europe after the United Kingdom and Romania. In 2008, it was established that the geographical center of Europe is located in Polotsk, and anyone who visits Polotsk can receive a commemorative certificate. The Russian villages of Sankovo and Medvezhye are located within the Dobrush district and are surrounded on all sides by Belarusian territory. These lands fell into the resettlement zone after...

1. the creation of the Soviet Union
2. the Chernobyl accident
3. the annexation of Crimea
4. the end of World War II

Belarus Total 2

Soviet symbols — the hammer, sickle, and star — were removed from the flag of the Byelorussian SSR, and the ornament is depicted in red on a white background. The color white symbolizes: the light of the midday sun; the hospitality of the Belarusian people; the freedom and purity of the country; the name of the country (“White Russia”). The ornament on the flag is based on...

1. a tree leaf; 2. the “Rising Sun” pattern; 3. the union of the main tribes.

Belarus General 3

The state emblem of the Republic of Belarus is a golden outline of the state border of the Republic of Belarus placed on a silver field, superimposed on the golden rays of the sun rising above the globe. At the top of the field is a five-pointed red star. The emblem is framed by a wreath of golden ears of grain intertwined with...
